

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/14/2025 01:41 AMComments Received :

This proposal is discriminatory and unnecessary. It undermines the rights of transgender Americans and contradicts existing legal precedents affirming gender identity on official documents. In addition, it would put people in danger by forcing them to inform others they are transgender each time they must use their passport. There is no scientific or legal justification for this change, and it will cause real harm to people.