

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/14/2025 07:08 PMComments Received :

Why be petty and cruel? Not everyone remains the same sex they were assigned at birth. Not everyone is clearly male or female. Information on passports should be accurate. The person obtaining the passport is in the best position to know whether they are male or female. It's my understanding that identification is made by fingerprint and photo. You are not checking genitals or testing hormone levels, are you? Respect people's rights to self definition.