

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/15/2025 03:11 PM

Comments Received :

It is insupportable to make it more difficult for trans people to apply for a passport that accurately reflects their gender. Trans people face multitudes of challenges just by existing, it is deeply immoral and unfeeling to add more. Having an accurate passport will also be less confusing for officials trying to verify that the person in front of them is the person whose passport they are attempting to verify.