

Author Full Name : Shea Kelly-Buckley

Received Date : 03/16/2025 02:45 PM

Comments Received :

Allowing for gender marker delineation or change is a literally lifesaving activity. Not allowing people to change their marker is objectively harmful. As a physician, I feel strongly that people be able to change their gender marker as they see fit without consequence or barrier.