

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/16/2025 07:46 PMComments Received :

I strongly oppose the proposed passport policy requiring individuals to disclose gender identity that differs from their assigned sex at birth. This is an unnecessary bureaucratic burden that wastes government resources without providing any benefit. Instead, it harms transgender, intersex, and nonbinary individuals and their families by exposing them to discrimination and potential targeting. I am deeply concerned about how this information could be used against individuals whose gender presentation does not align with outdated legal classifications. Please reject this harmful policy.