

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/17/2025 09:36 AM

Comments Received :

The purpose of the gender portion of the passport is to make identification of the person holding the passport simpler. It is not meant to be a comment on their biological sex at birth. It is demeaning to trans people and useless for the purpose stated to have the passport declare their biological sex at birth, and this change should not go through.