

Author Full Name : Maxine Phillips

Received Date : 03/17/2025 11:00 AM

Comments Received :

I am a US citizen and I object to the proposed change to reporting gender on passports to biological sex at birth. Transgender people are highly stigmatized and vulnerable to the degradation being touted by this administration. Having biological sex at birth as the only option on a passport is traumatic for a transgender individual and confusing for passport control officers. It is not an acceptable change. It is equivalent to a hate crime.