

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/17/2025 01:51 PM

Comments Received :

I oppose the change to require your sex at birth to be listed rather than gender, as it would not allow intersex individuals who were incorrectly identified at birth to have an accurate passport. It would also make travel more difficult for those who don't physically resemble their birth sex to travel (for example transgender individuals or those with hormone disorders).