

Author Full Name : X T

Received Date : 03/17/2025 09:20 PM

Comments Received :

Please do not change the market from gender to sex. This costs more money to change and more government money spent to change than to keep the same.

Not only that it would be challenging for trans people to get their passport. It would also allow for discrimination on trans people when their passport does not match how they are today.