

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/18/2025 01:00 AMComments Received :

Trans and intersex people exist, no matter what illegal Executive Orders say. Trans women are women, and trans men are men. Denying them the ability to list their actual gender on their passports takes away their freedoms and autonomy, something the U.S. Constitution prevents the government from doing. Banning accurate IDs and forcing trans people to out themselves whenever they show an ID will only push trans people out of public life and expose us to discrimination and violence.