Self identification of gender on government documents is the only option that makes sense. If someone's identification is misleading to how they express themselves in real life then it is worse than unhelpful. Its confusing and a needlessly frustrating experience for the individual and any gov workers involved.

The idea that a government body can dictate how you express yourself and the kind of person you are is an extremely dangerous one. Its beyond a wasteful overstep, and one that will be abused by not only this administration but all those to come.
