

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/18/2025 11:03 PMComments Received :

I strongly oppose changes to identification that would only allow it to show people's assigned sex at birth. This reduces identification's effectiveness if the person's gender does not match their assigned sex at birth. In addition, it puts intersex and transgender people at harm of abuse, incarceration, or even death if they need to show their ID. This does not help in any way and materially harms people. Do not make this change.