

Author Full Name : Robin Hamlin

Received Date : 03/19/2025 01:26 PM

Comments Received :

I do not support the proposed changes for the following reasons:

The current system works

The passport is a reporting document. Citizenship and identity of the applicant are determined by other processes outside of the passport application process.

Name changes are common.

Name and gender changes are not illegal.

Targeting a specific group of Americans for special treatment is unconstitutional.