

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 04/23/2025 03:33 PM

Comments Received :

The Farm to School Census provides vital information to farmers, school food directors, public health officials, state departments of agriculture, and researchers. It enables us as a country to understand what foods we grow are making it to schoolchildren, and how. Without this data, it will be harder to understand this vital economic link between our farmers and this market segment.