

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 04/25/2025 01:11 PM

Comments Received :

I have used the data from the Farm to School census plenty of times to back up the importance of Farm to School programs and to show the national trends for NSLP-participating schools when presenting Farm to School information to members of my school district. For a world that runs on data, it is VERY valuable to be able to refer to the census to prove that what we are doing is working, spreading across the country, and providing value to our students.