

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 04/27/2025 08:06 AM

Comments Received :

Taxpayer dollars allotted to Medicare and/or Medicaid should go to the individuals who are eligible for those benefits and absolutely should not be appropriated for other uses. The only changes that should be allowed to these programs and/or programs of this type should be changes which increase payments to those who need these programs and have a right to access these funds because they PAID a portion of their earned income into these programs.