

Author Full Name : Sandra AcostaReceived Date : 06/17/2025 12:41 AMComments Received :

I am a researcher and instructor of future teachers. In that capacity, I am requesting that the US Department of Education resume collection of proficiency data. In other words, that you continue with the November proposal to do the same. This data and the analysis of this data is important to State agencies of education, schools, and teachers for effective decision-making in order to increase students' academic performance and achievement.