

Author Full Name : Thomas SpencerReceived Date : 06/17/2025 12:40 PMComments Received :

We are the Public Affairs Research Council of Alabama, a nonprofit, nonpartisan governmental research organization. We provide schools with data they need to compare their performance. We also serve the public and the state legislature by providing these comparative analysis publicly. We rely on federally collected data to understand how our schools and system perform in comparison to schools and systems in other states. Without national data, we are effectively flying blind. Please reconsider cancellation of this work.