

Author Full Name : Scott Imberman

Received Date : 06/18/2025 09:29 AM

Comments Received :

I oppose this proposal. The current proposal supersedes a rule adopted last fall that expanded the public provision of education data for 4th and 8th grade students to provide more detail that is critical to researchers, state and local education policy makers, and practitioners. This proposal would rescind that rule, greatly reducing the accuracy and availability to the public of critical data.

Scott A. Imberman
Professor of Economics and Education Policy
Michigan State University