

Author Full Name : Kelly Moore

Received Date : 06/26/2025 06:34 PM

Comments Received :

9000-0075

The extension of the Government Property under the FAR regulation should be extended for accurate inventory management and validation of authentication of property assets. This is an important step in ensuring transparency in various areas of agency contracts for record keeping purposes and allow for accessibility needs for agency management.