

Author Full Name : Kelly Moore

Received Date : 06/26/2025 07:49 PM

Comments Received :

9000-0027

Under the FAR regulations, the value of engineering requirements are necessary for cost estimates for modifications required for upgrading or maintenance requirements according to policies. This will allow concise data analysis of of projects and their cost analysis to determine if extensive changes are needed to complete the projects.