

Author Full Name : Lori Jaquin

Received Date : 06/30/2025 12:48 PM

Comments Received :

The reinstatement of the rule requiring ICFs to collect covid vaccination data and require direct care staff to be vaccinated or get an exemption is an unnecessary burden to facilities.

Individual staff should discuss this with their own medical doctor, now that it is not mandatory for healthcare workers. Infection control policies are already required and in place to ensure that all parties are safe from infection and communicable diseases.
adding additional reporting, documentation is redundant and unnecessary.