To Whom It May Concern:

As a living kidney donor, I found that kidney donation is a meaningful way to make a huge difference in another person's health and well-being at relatively low risk and inconvenience to myself. However, the process is somewhat complicated and few people understand where and how to donate or realize what supports are out there. I support the proposed HRSA data collection because it will address disparities in transplant access, improve transparency, and enhance donor management practices.

Thank you for considering my comment.
