

Author Full Name : Philip LutzReceived Date : 07/29/2025 09:06 AMComments Received :

Decennial Census Temporary, Intermittent Applicant Information Collection is not for all decennial jobs as the notice states. This application process is for selected decennial positions. The wording needs to be change from ALL to SOME decennial positions. Many decennial jobs will not be filled through this process. In fact, the final notice should clarify that there will be another process to apply for jobs like managers, technicians, partnership, and more. This notice is very confusing to the public as written.