it is time to put education dep grants to bed and instead pay off usa deficit and cut taxes on all of us. we are sick of paying for kids to go to college. we see no need to pay for community college since community colleges do have lower rates than 4 year colleges and most can afford them. and we should encourage kids 17-30 to work days and go to school nights and weekends. it would give them less time for starting riots. i am so sick of these kids who know nothing of the world rioting because we pay for them to get everything free. its time to stop the giveaways. its costing us too much money and bankrupting the working people. why bankrupt the working people and those who have given 60 years of working to this country. whyt give it awfay to callow kids who expec giveaways from the givt and wont work for a damn th ing.

also this sytem of public comment you have set up is sickening and keeps the public from commenting. your agency gets very very low comment from the general public because nobody wants to hunt andpeck to find something. it should be there clear as can be in this day and age. why send them to a site wher eyou have to hunt and peck. i asked my librailrian to find where it is and it took more than 1/2 hour that is unacceptable just to find a site to comment. jean public
