

Author Full Name : Dean SchantzenReceived Date : 11/18/2025 12:40 PMComments Received :

The process for transferring a firearm from an individual to an established NFA trust does not allow the use of the eform process. Only if you hold a FFL does it allow you to complete and submit form electronically. Therefore, the individual is required to fully use the hard copy process. This is antiquated, cumbersome and a burden both to the bureau in processing and to the individual in time and approval delay into what is already recognized as a legitimate active NFA firearm trust.