General Comment

this form is fine. it can be filled out and left with a family or business associate. i see no reason why non travelers should be subsidiing traelers with having this filed by the us dept of state. this is expensive proposition. it can be simplyh left with a family member if there is a problem or a business associate to turn over to law enforcement if necessary. i see absolutely no reason fro the state dept to be a nanny for travelers. the costs is exorbitant. the state dept employees make hugely expensive salaries to do clerks work. shut down this expensive fat cat washington bubble project. cut the budget for this to zero. this has no merit and is not needed. we dont need to set up the state dept as a nanny, meanwhile they bankrupt us taxpayers with the huge costs from this pgoram. we need smaller govt. look up senator tom coburns waste 2012 report to see some oher stupid things the state dept is wasting our taxpayer dollars on. the people who manage this agency think allt apayers are made of gold. they keep spending and spending and spending out of control. no cost cutting at this agency - they send athletes at full expense all over the world to allegedly make good press. we need to shut that down too. state dept is wasting our tax dollars bringin over alleged "culturea" exhibits which is another tax dollars waster. state dept needs cutting badfly. do diplomacy and do it efficiently and effectively. this fept does not exist to be a nanny to travelers. while none travelers pay the freight costs.
