RE: How long does it take you to: Prepare and submit your report to a certifying agent following an on-site inspection?

On average, I'd say it takes me about the same time to write and submit the inspection report as it takes to do the inspection.

A minimum report time would be about 2 hrs, maximum depends on the complexity of the inspection and how organized the inspected client was. If the client has many non-compliances, the OSP is a mess, or an audit trail or in/out balance is complicated, there is more report time needed to explain the situation.
