the scandal plagued us dept of interior plans a customer satisfaction survey.
omb 1040-0001 attention ben simon

i believe this survey accomplishes nothing at all. i believe taking this survey is wasteful since the dept will not allow unflattering comments to be entered at all and will whitewash the comments. instead, take care of satisfying the general public. i know the agency is satisfying the profiteers in corrupt washington dc - the sin city of today.
