This new proposed form is against all measures of the Paperwork Reduction Act. It has opened a pandora's box for USCIS adjudicators to deal with a tsunami of paperwork and evidence coming their way; as if they are not overburdened anyways with the current form(which if fine, but is still very detailed). This new form is very hard for your everyday person to fill out and most people would require some form of legal assistance which is very expensive by the way and many US citizens cannot afford it to file for AOS for their family. May questions are very broad, vague and cannot be answered by just a simple "yes" or "no". This will slow down the entire process of AOS even for the people who are filing via their spouses. For example, look at this question.

Part 8 Question 65

Lying and concealment are voluntary actions while misrepresentation could be mistaken/involuntary. I believe that this question lacks clarity and is confusing. A Yes/No cannot properly answer this question.

Please keep the current form as it works good and has only 6 pages which are more than enough. For the sake of US Citizens and USCIS personnel who will process applications.
