General Comment

Currently most aspects of Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) are subject to appeal but not all are properly set up for the Notice of Disagreement(NOD) process. The current summary of this action opens with the statement of compliance of the Paper Work Reduction Act. Common sense does not show that this statement would be congruent with adding another form (21p-0970). It is currently true that the current VA form for NOD 21-0958 used for compensation is not friendly to disagreeing with the VA Pension, DIC or Burial programs. The VA form 21-0958 is also not adequate for use in disagreements with the VA Health System(VHA). Will a form then be created for the NOD process of the VHA? Why would you not clean up the document that already exists instead of potentially creating three forms.
