

UCare recommends that CMS give organizations at least 60 days (preferably 90 days) from the date of the notice to upload the Health Service Delivery tables. This will provide organizations adequate time to review and QA the data. Alternatively, UCare recommends that CMS establish a static due date for the review, which would help organizations plan for the submission.