Im an 18 year old. please dont change the medication rule! i have a grandmother who suffers from SCLERODERMA. My cousin suffers from Sickle Cell and my mother suffers from CRPS COMPLEX REGIONAL PAIN SYNDROME please dont do this! We hen I was 9 I wrote to Santa hoping he could fix my mom I diid not ask for toys I just wanted my mom back on the ball field with me. Now I just want her to not pass out from pain like Ive seen with my own eyes. I also dont want her to go back to the days she would beg the ER doc to cut it off that scared me when I was 10 and I want her to be able to be a grandma to my kids 1 day. I see her struggle to hold my nephew and niece. I worry because Im afraid my kids may never know her in any other way. I love her and cant watch her be hurt! PLEASE DONT DO THIS.
