Comment:

The revised version of the W-4 is very cumbersome and will be an extreme burden on employers. I feel boxes 5, 6, 7, 8 should be provided as a worksheet only. Many employees are not willing to disclose such private information on a form that will be processed by their employers. And, how can you have a mixture if you leave boxes 5, 6, 7, and 8 as optional which is the current wording now. I can see having the "single" and "married" status to indicate the bracket of taxes to be processed without withholding allowances so that a more definitive calculation can be implemented. All employees would either be "single" or "married" with 0 allowances since the exemptions have been eliminated. Use boxes 5, 6, 7, and 8 as worksheet information only. *🌐
