no one can trust this govt agency. there is no quality at this agency. this agency lies about animals diseases and uses fake information to make political decisions so they can get money from taxpayers. this is about money and politics not animal diseases at all. the fat cat bureaucrats who work at this agency cannot be trusted. they lie to get money.

this comment is for the public record. read the account of the family in Vermont who had to kill every sheep even though they never had a case of
