General Comment

snap program is paying out money to people who should never be collecting. the agency is lax in making sure it does not issue taxpayer dollars to those who are nothing but frauds. this agency deserves a grade of f minus for its failure to make sure that those who collect money from the wallets of taxpayers deserve to get it for free. this agency is corrupt to the max and pays out when it should be withholding from payment. there are a lot of frauds out there. we have a lax corrupt criminal agency here that is not working for the good of taxpayers at all.
