Comment: It is apparent that low-income children have greater hurdles to overcome to grow into productive adults. One hurdle is, in our county of Stark, Ohio we have one in five children defined as food insecure. That means nothing in the refrigerator or cupboard to eat and not knowing where the next meal is coming from.. PLEASE do not handicap these children further by removing them from eligibility to be SNAP recipients. Not one of them. We care deeply for the well-being of all children and realize all of society is hampered by individuals who cannot support themselves because of poverty, illnesses, or disabilities. Help them to become the most able adults they can grow to be. Jane Quilter Canton, OH *
