

State	UR Requirements	TPA Requirements
California	UR licenses required for various reviews, including medical, long-term care, mental health, and chiropractic reviews. California Department of Insurance.	TPAs must be licensed. California Insurance Code § 1759.10 et seq.
Florida	N/A	TPAs must obtain a Certificate of Authority. Florida Statutes § 626.88 et seq.
Illinois	Managed Care and UR organizations must be registered. Illinois Administrative Code, Title 50, Part 2051.	TPAs must be licensed. Illinois Insurance Code, 215 ILCS 5/511.100 et seq.
Indiana	Initial registration and certification for UR agents. IC 27-8-17 and IAC 760 1-46.	N/A
Kentucky	UR agents must register: Kentucky Administrative Regulations.	N/A
Minnesota	UR Organizations must be registered. Minnesota Statutes Chapter 62M.	N/A
New York	UR agents must be certified: New York Insurance Law ISC § 4901.	TPAs must be licensed as independent adjusters. New York Insurance Law § 2108.
Oklahoma	UR providers must be licensed. : Oklahoma Insurance Code.	N/A
Pennsylvania	Certification required for entities conducting UR. 40 PA Stat. § 991.2151.	N/A
Texas	N/A	TPAs must register. Texas Insurance Code § 4151.001 et seq.
New Jersey	N/A	TPAs must be licensed. New Jersey Statutes § 17B:27B-1 et seq.
Virginia	N/A	TPAs must be licensed. Virginia Code § 38.2-1839.
Connecticut	N/A	TPAs must be licensed. Connecticut General Statutes § 38a-720 et seq.
South Carolina	N/A	TPAs must be licensed. South Carolina Code § 38-51-10 et seq.
Georgia	N/A	TPAs must be licensed. Georgia Code § 33-23-100 et seq.