

Participant List for OMB Meeting Stark/Anti-Kickback Final Rules

Jeff Bromme, General Counsel, Advent Health

Jeffrey Bromme serves as Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer at Advent Health, a large non-profit, Florida-based health care system with operations in nine states. He leads the department providing legal services to Advent providers, the advocacy and policy departments, and tax department. He previously served as General Counsel to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, clerked for the Honorable Will Garwood, U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. Bromme earned his JD from the University of Texas School of Law, and a BA from Southwestern Adventist University.

Terry Chang, M.D., Vice President, Assistant General Counsel, and Director, Legal & Medical Affairs, AdvaMed

Dr. Chang provides legal and medical expertise on policy matters and leads the association's legal policy work to advance value-based health care. He received his BS in Economics from the University of Michigan and his MD from the Wayne State University School of Medicine. Before receiving his JD from George Washington University, he received postgraduate training in general surgery through the Mount Sinai School of Medicine (Cabrini) Program. Dr. Chang is licensed to practice medicine and surgery in Washington, D.C., and is admitted to the New York State and District of Columbia Bars.

Blair Childs, Senior Vice President, Premier

Blair Childs is considered a national expert in health policy, advocacy, and reform. He currently serves as the Senior Vice President of Public Affairs at Premier, having previously been Executive Vice President of Strategic Planning and Implementation at AdvaMed. Blair has been at the center of health care policy issues in Washington for over two decades, leading reform efforts on the state and national level. He is a graduate of Middlebury College.

Anthony Curry, Director, Federal Government Relations, Advocate Aurora Health

Tony Curry is a Director of Federal Government Affairs for Advocate Aurora Health, a leading not-for-profit integrated delivery system located in the Midwest. His previous experience includes roles as an attorney at the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services in the Office of the General Counsel and as a health care policy and regulatory specialist at the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer and Feld. Curry received his JD from the Antonin Scalia Law School and his BA from the University of Colorado at Boulder.

Todd Gillenwater, Senior Director, Government Affairs, Medtronic

Todd Gillenwater joined Medtronic in 2017 and his portfolio includes Medicare coverage and payment-related issues, value-based healthcare, and U.S. government agency procurement policy matters. Todd joined Medtronic following 13 years with the California Life Sciences Association [CLSA; previously the California Healthcare Institute (CHI)], California's life sciences trade association. He served in a number of capacities with CLSA and CHI, including as Executive Vice President for Advocacy and External Relations, leading the organization's Washington, DC office. Prior to that, Todd served as Legislative Director for former Congressman David Dreier (CA) and was an associate at The Heritage Foundation. Todd has a BS in International Relations from the Georgia Institute of Technology and MS in Management from The Catholic University of America.

Tina Grande, Executive Vice President, Policy, Healthcare Leadership Council

Tina Olson Grande is Executive Vice President for Policy for the Healthcare Leadership Council. Ms. Grande oversees all policy-related matters pertaining to delivery systems, payment reform, health information technology, patient safety, and healthcare quality. She is Chair of the Confidentiality Coalition, the leading health privacy and security coalition bringing together all sectors of the healthcare industry. Ms. Grande is a frequent speaker on health issues and her work has been published on numerous occasions. She currently serves as Co-Chair of the Workgroup for Electronic Data Interchange's (WEDI's) Security and Privacy workgroup. Ms. Grande launched her career in health policy working in the U.S. Senate for Senator Dave Durenberger from Minnesota.

Mary R. Grealy, President, Healthcare Leadership Council

Mary R. Grealy is the President of the Healthcare Leadership Council, a policy advocacy group representing all sectors of the industry. She has led efforts to reform Medicare and improve care quality at several industry groups in her career. She has been ranked multiple times in Modern Healthcare as one of the 100 Most Powerful People in Healthcare and was named in their Top 25 Women in Healthcare in 2009. Grealy holds a JD from Duquesne University School of Law, and a BA from Michigan State University.

Mark Hayes, Senior Vice President, Policy and Advocacy, Ascension

Mark Hayes is a lawyer and pharmacist with more than 30 years of federal and private sector health law and policy experience. He served on the staff for four U.S. Senators (Grassley, Bond, Snowe and Jeffords), and served for more than seven years as Health Policy Director and Chief Health Counsel for the Senate Finance Committee Republican staff for Chairman/Ranking Member Grassley.

Peter M. Leibold, Chief Advocacy Officer, Ascension

Peter M. Leibold is the Chief Advocacy Officer for Ascension. In this role, Leibold leads the execution of an integrated advocacy and government affairs strategy to enhance Ascension's ability to lead the transformation of healthcare, with continued emphasis on providing access for vulnerable populations. Prior to joining Ascension, Leibold served for fifteen years as the Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer of the American Health Lawyers Association (AHLA), the largest association in the United States dedicated to educating and promoting collegiality among health lawyers.

Chris White, General Counsel and Secretary, AdvaMed

Christopher White is the Chief Operating Officer, General Counsel, and Secretary of AdvaMed. White has worked on issues in health care regulatory compliance, fraud, and abuse for over 30 years in Washington. He is a frequent speaker and guest writer on health industry issues. White received his JD from Catholic University Law School, and his BA from Wake Forest University.

Danielle White, Regulatory Counsel, Ascension

Danielle White currently serves as Regulatory Counsel for Ascension. Before joining Ascension, Dani was a Senior Associate with Alston & Bird's Health Care and Life Sciences practice, after serving as an Associate with Greenberg Traurig's Health Care and FDA practice. Prior to practicing law, Dani worked as a Specialist in the Office of International Government Affairs at Eli Lilly and Company, and as Executive Assistant for Ways and Means Health Subcommittee Chairwoman Nancy L. Johnson (R-CT).

Ladd Wiley, Attorney at Law, Olsson Frank

Ladd Wiley is Chair of the Health Industry Policy and Regulatory Practice at OFW Law. He provides counsel to a large range of health care clients, including delivery systems, medical device manufacturers, and biopharmaceutical companies. He has had a long career in both the public and private sectors, from a large international firm to leadership in his home state of Wisconsin. Wiley previously served as Principal Deputy Counsel of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services in the Bush Administration. He earned his JD from the University of Wisconsin, and a BA from Cornell College of Iowa.

Debbie Witchey, Chief Operating Officer and EVP, Healthcare Leadership Council

Debbie Witchey is Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Healthcare Leadership Council (HLC), a coalition of chief executives of the nation's leading healthcare companies and organizations. In her position, she leads HLC's government affairs function, and directs HLC's extensive field organization. Prior to joining HLC, Debbie served as the director of the community health initiative for what is now Roper St. Francis Healthcare, a not-for-profit healthcare system based in Charleston, South Carolina. She has also served in the public sector at the United States Department of the Treasury, ending her tenure as acting assistant secretary for management and deputy assistant secretary.