

State Tanning Device Restrictions

- State law prohibiting tanning for minors (under age 18) with no exemptions.
- State law prohibits tanning for those under 17 (NY, NJ, CT, PA), or under 16 (NM, IN). State law requires parental accompaniment for every visit for those under 18 (UT), allows for physician prescription under 18 (OR, WA), or prohibits tanning for under age 18 unless a signed parental permission slip is obtained for every two visits (RI).
- No state law regarding tanning (indicated with an *), state law prohibits those 14 or 15 or under, law allows for signed parental permission, or law requires parental accompaniment for every visit under 16 or younger.

How Do You Measure Up?