ACTION: Semiannual regulatory agenda.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Atticus J. Reaser, General Counsel, CIGIE, (202) 292-2600.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 602, executive agencies are required to publish in the Federal Register a regulatory flexibility agenda in April and October of each year. Such regulatory flexibility agenda must include rules that the agency expects to propose or promulgate that are likely to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. CIGIE has determined, under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, that the regulation under consideration will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Moreover, as a result, no regulatory flexibility analysis is required pursuant to the Regulatory Flexibility Act. Furthermore, the regulation being considered by CIGIE is not a "significant regulatory action" within the meaning of Executive Order 12866 entitled "Regulatory Planning and Review" and, therefore, no Regulatory Plan is required.
