

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

1 CFR Ch. I, 32 CFR Ch. XX, 36 CFR Ch. XII

2026 Unified Agenda of Federal Regulatory and Deregulatory Actions

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Regulatory/deregulatory agenda.

SUMMARY: This agenda announces the proposed regulatory and deregulatory actions that the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) plans for the next 12 months and those actions that NARA has completed since the spring of 2025. This agenda was developed under the guidelines in OMB's Memorandum for Regulatory Policy Officers at Executive Departments and Agencies and Managing and Executive Directors of Certain Agencies and Commissions. NARA publishes this agenda to provide the American people with timely information on the agency's plans and with opportunities to participate in the rulemaking process. Some of the regulations listed in the agenda could be considered significant under Executive Order 12866, "Regulatory Planning and Review." NARA's complete regulatory agenda is available online at www.reginfo.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dina Herbert, Office of General Counsel, by telephone at 202-357-5265, or by email at regulation_comments@nara.gov. NARA current regulations are online at <https://www.archives.gov/about/regulations/regulations.html>. NARA and other Federal regulations are also online and available for comment directly at <http://www.regulations.gov>.

NAME: Jim Byron,

Senior Advisor to the Acting Archivist of the United States.